Hot Topic #3 – Trustees – their Appointment and Independence to be held on Zoom from 16:00 -17:00 on Monday March 7th 2022

The two short presentations outlined below will be followed by discussions in breakout rooms and a plenary wrap up session. To register and receive your personal details to join the Zoom Meeting please contact Hilary Lindsay (almoner@accountantslivery.org).

Trustees – their Appointment

Andrea Eccles, Master Guild of Human Resource Professionals and Past Master
Mark McLane, Head of Diversity, Inclusion and Wellbeing at M&G Investments

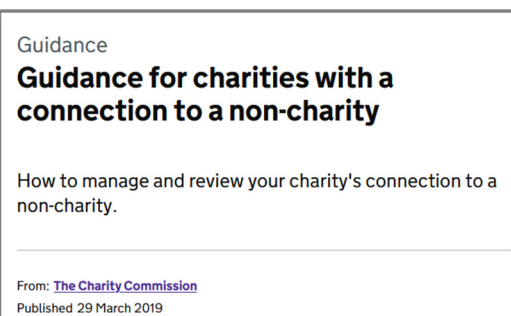

There are many considerations when recruiting, appointing and on-boarding Charity Trustees. Paramount is that they are eligible to serve the charity and have the right experience and skills. There is equal onus on the charity to ensure that they understand their duties, the purpose and objects of the charity and have the tools to make decisions and conform with governance. However, having an affinity with the charity's objects and securing diversity of thought is now even more crucial. The HR Guild will share their insights on how HR elements including diversity and inclusion can add value to the appointment and decision-making processes.

Trustees – their Independence

Stephen Gilbert
Chair of Charitable Trust, Chartered Secretaries and Administrators

Stephen will share his practical tips on trustee independence for Livery Charities. The short presentation will signpost attendees to specific Charity Commission guidance (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/guidance-for-charities-with-a-connection-to-a-non-charity>) and further sources of support and information. Stephen will draw on his experience as a Chartered Governance Professional specialising in charities for over 30 years as well as his time as a charity Chief Executive.
